D All Applicants must submit the following initial fees:
$100. Application Fee
$75. Nevada Specific Test Fee

Your submission of a Certification of the Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Boards Record, allows you to omit the information required on the application as described below:

1. A chronological statement of the educational background of the applicant, including the names and addresses of schools attended, years of attendance, major subject and degree received, as applicable.
2. A complete record of the work experience of the applicant, including the beginning and ending dates of that employment, the titles of the positions held by the applicant and the duties performed by the applicant in those positions. Employment in the field of landscape architecture must be described in particularity.

Mail all requested fees and documents to:

Nevada State Board of Landscape Architecture
P.O. Box 34143
Reno, NV 89533

Remember to retain a copy of all application documents for your records.

Step 5 Examination

When eligibility has been met and all documents have been verified and all fees are paid, you will be able to take the Nevada Specific Examination.

You may request to have an electronic exam be sent to you via e-mail. The exam will need to be printed and once completed, returned to the office of the Nevada State Board of Landscape Architecture via US Mail. If you choose, you may request a paper examination to be sent to you. Each exam will be dated, candidates will have a 3-month period to complete and return the examination. Once the 3-month period has passed, the examination fee will be charged again and so on until the examination is returned.

The examination is designed to encourage you to hunt through the provided material to answer each of the questions. The information provided to you will be a valuable resource when you begin your practice in Nevada. It is intended that you will answer each question correctly, all of the answers are provided; you will need to find each of them.

Step 6 Registration by Reciprocity

Your entire application and completed passing examination will be forwarded to the Board at its next regularly scheduled meeting. Tentative meeting dates are posted on the Board's web site. All returned exams must be delivered to the Board office at least 2 weeks prior to the meeting in order to be approved. You will be notified in writing of the Board's action following the meeting. You are welcome to attend the meeting in person if you wish. Your application will be considered complete when you have paid the following required fees: $200 Registration Fee, $25 Stamp Fee and $25 Certificate Fee. These fees may be paid prior to the Board meeting to expedite the process. An optional electronic stamp is available for an additional $25 at your request. Your name will be added to the Roster of Registered Landscape Architects in the State of Nevada. You may practice your profession in the State of Nevada at that time.
