FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nevada Landscape Architect Elected Treasurer of International Organization

RESTON, VIRGINIA (UNITED STATES) – September 28, 2019– Cary Baird has been elected as President-Elect of the 2019–2020 Board of Directors for the Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Boards (CLARB) and will serve a one-year term through September 30, 2020, where he will be installed as President for the upcoming term.

Previously for CLARB, Baird served Treasurer (2017-2019), as the Region 5 Director (2015-2017) and Region 5 Alternate Director (2013-2015). He has also served as a grader for sections of the Landscape Architect Registration Examination (L.A.R.E.).

Baird served as a board member of the Nevada State Board of Landscape Architecture from 2006-2015. Throughout this time, he participated as a board representative at each of CLARB's Annual Meetings.

Closer to home, Baird is a Principal at Stantec Consulting in Las Vegas where he leads by example through foresight, innovation and consensus building.

Baird earned a bachelor's degree in Planning and Landscape Architecture from Arizona State University. He is a CLARB Certified landscape architect and is currently licensed in Nevada, California, Colorado, Utah, Arizona, North Dakota, Idaho, Oregon, Montana, Texas and New Mexico.

About CLARB

Since 1970, CLARB has been dedicated to ensuring that all individuals who affect the natural and built environment through the practice of landscape architecture are sufficiently qualified to do so. CLARB works to protect the public's health, safety and welfare by establishing and promoting professional licensure standards for education, experience and examination required for the profession of landscape architecture. CLARB's members include the licensure boards that regulate the profession of landscape architecture in the United States; District of Columbia; Puerto Rico; and the Canadian provinces of Alberta, British Columbia and Ontario.
